

BROAD STREET PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
ALTERNATIVE VALENTINE MISSION FAIR
2010

You are invited to support a mission project that speaks to your heart!

D.R. Congo, Africa

Broad Street Presbyterian has long supported the work of the PC(USA) in the D.R.Congo, particularly with the Good Shepherd Hospital IMCK. The work continues in the area of gynecologic surgeries and community development.

		Total donated
Fistula repair surgery	$150 each	_____
Moringa Tree nutrition project	$10 per family	_____
Where need is greatest		_____

Peru, South America

Dozens of Broadstreeters have traveled to Peru in the past decade! We support the Joining Hands Against Hunger Network (JHAH) which works to promote fair trade, and environmental and social justice for the poorest of the poor in Peru. In 2009, newly appointed Mission Partners Jed Koball and Alexandra Buck arrived in Peru to continue this work. The JHAH office is used for workshops and training sessions for artisans and others.

New printer for JHAH office (The current printer is on its last legs!)	$150	_____
Projector, sound system, screen for JHAH office (An up-to-date system will help train artisans and others)	$1500	_____
Scanner for JHAH office Will help cut back on postage and time sending documents electronically. (Jed says their scanner only works half the time.)	$300	_____
Fair Trade Artisan development	$25	_____

Gifts to Mission Fair are tax deductible. You will receive a 2010 statement of contributions for tax purposes.

Bring this form to Church on February 7 or 14 or mail it with your donation.
